Presidents Message FULL DISCLOSURE

When Dean asked Craig to try out their new Corvette, he jumped right in....Never thinking though if he could get out by himself!

In anticipation of the fact that elections for Officers and Board of Directors of the Peace River Car Club are rapidly approaching, I feel compelled to clear the air. It seems that prior to accepting any political position every politician's entire life history must be scrutinized and made public. Since I will be running for the office of President, I would like to apologize in advance for any and all previous momentary indiscretions on my part.....whether they be truth or fiction, actual or conceived, in my mind or just a fantasy, or that may be interpreted or mis-construed in such a manner as to cloud the judgement necessary to fulfill the duties required of the office of President of your club. In the spirit of "Full disclosure," I offer the following;

I am not certain, but I believe about Sixty plus years ago, when I was a young horny teenager, I had lust in my heart. First, there was the vivacious Susan Peyton, a slightly more mature girl than her age would indicate. The winter sweater that she wore was obviously purchased prior to her growth spurt. I am fairly certain that was not my first impure thought, but it is the first one that comes to mind.

At that time, the hormones rushing through my body were totally responsible for my "many lapses of judgement." An excuse that would only hold up, if at that age I actually had any rational, coherent, non- hormonal judgement!

Thinking back even further, I vaguely recall having a crush on my first-grade teacher, Mrs. Sullivan. In her finger-painting class, I drew a heart with her initials in the middle, however, I don't fear any embarrassing sexual harassment suit will emerge as I am fairly certain that she is no longer with us. Just in case, "Mrs. Sullivan, from the bottom of my heart, I truly regret any pain and suffering you may have experienced from our half-hearted relationship."

It is with a shameful heavy heart that I tell you these past transgressions. I assure you, they are not relevant to the person I am today. However, should you feel that these reprehensible actions of 65 years ago prevent me from fulfilling my duties as your President, I will graciously step aside and let any person with a pure, untainted history take my place.

Oh, I forgot one, at 15 years old I also mis-spoke and misrepresented the accurate origin of my ethnic background. In hopes of "fitting in" with my South Philly Italian friends, I may have mentioned that I was part Italian. Craig & Mary Henry

Our club members look forward to our annual Valentine's party. For some it is the only time their husbands will take them out to dinner other than McDonalds! Every one of our "sweethearts" received a lighted "forever rose" (complete with batteries). Ree Franke has a 5 year collection and they still light up!

After a few cold years we had perfect weather for Bob Collett's Sonshine Church annual cruise-in to raise money for the young adults (is that politically correct?) We were entertained with sales tactics of the little girl selling cookies. "Cookies are only 50cents but I charge a dollar to deliver them!" Who could turn down that pitch.

Proud Members and their babies!

Who Is helping who here? Vern or Anita?

Our club member Ron Morgan has a first class repair shop and we all enjoy his annual "Customer Appreciation" cruise-ins. With free food, it's guaranteed our North Port members will show up! Thank you Tammy Hayes for taking pictures.

“PRCC is an eating club with a car problem!”

May the wind at your back not be the result of the corned beef and cabbage you ate for lunch

Mary Ellen had to read the Instructions to Chef Benson

You just never know who will show up when we have a party!

Our resident "Bookie" Al Saucier even talked Glynda Matheson into betting on the race.

We're always happy to see Vern Hampton.

Classic Car or Harley trikes, when PRCC has a party everyone shows up!

Fred Burns & Denise brought some of their homemade "Award Winning" wine!
